

Fayetteville Observer

THURSDAY, NOV. 18. 1852.

Candidates--1853.

TAX COLLECTOR—LINCOLN COUNTY.
We are authorized to announce Ira E. Douthit, candidate for Tax Collector in Lincoln County, for 1853.
W. D. Wiseman, a candidate for Tax Collector of Lincoln County, for 1853.
We are authorized to announce Maj. Joseph H. George, a candidate for Tax Collector of Lincoln County, for 1853.
We are authorized to announce William L. Pamphill, a candidate for Tax Collector of Lincoln County, for 1853.

Military Candidates.

We are authorized to announce Lieut. Col. George Gandy, a candidate for Commandant of the 72d Regiment, Tennessee Militia, all the time necessary caused by the resignation of Col. S. S. Alexander.
We are authorized to announce Maj. Joseph T. Haskett, a candidate for Lieutenant Colonel of the 72d Regiment, Tennessee Militia, at the approaching election.

Business Notice.

The List of Letters is published in the Fayetteville Observer, in compliance with a law of Congress, which provides that it shall appear in the newspaper having the largest circulation.

For Rent.

The room and cellar immediately under the Observer printing office, for the ensuing year. For terms, &c., apply at this office.

Fayetteville Female Academy.

Without intending to cast reflections upon those who have preceded them, we entertain the opinion, based upon what is generally said, that the present teachers of the Fayetteville Female Academy are beyond doubt as well qualified in the art of teaching as the most successful who have favored our community, for a considerable time past. Even with the limited efforts and lukewarm attention bestowed by those who should otherwise be its guardians and main pillars of support, we are pleased to notice that the efforts of the meritorious teachers are beginning to be slightly rewarded by an additional number of pupils. The general satisfaction given thus far, with proper and energetic exertions of the friends of the Academy, together with the fact that our town can not be surpassed in all the essential elements that contribute towards making it the most desirable point at which a Female Institute can be located in Middle Tennessee, induces the belief that "true merit can not longer fail to meet" its just recompense of reward, by the bestowal of a patronage commensurate with the capacity of the teachers of our Academy.—If our space would permit, we would be pleased to say more upon this subject. We expect to do so after this. Fayetteville ought to have a flourishing Female Academy—it must have one.

A Sale.

Those desiring to purchase valuable property can have an opportunity by attending the sale of Messrs. McPhail, on the 15th and 16th of December. See advertisement in another column.

Daguerreotypes.

By a card which we publish in today's paper, the admirers of correct likenesses are informed that upon visiting Nashville, at any time hereafter, they can be accommodated by calling on Mr. F. N. Hughes, the bare mention of whose name is sufficient to satisfy all who made his acquaintance during his stay in our town, that a facsimile of the "phiz" will be given when Hughes is about. He is permanently located in Nashville.

We take pleasure in stating that our young friend, J. B. Hill, who has taken a room in Thompson's new brick, is not only the former student of Mr. Hughes, but in the estimation of those who have examined his specimens, just the operator Hughes will be certain to turn out, should the student possess the necessary "gumption"—the very best.

Land Warrants.

The Nashville True Whig says the sales of Land Warrants by the brokers at New York, are at $150 for the 160 acres script, $75 for 80 acres, and $37 for 40 acres. The leading dealers buy at $146 & $147, $2, a $73, and at $364 & $363.

Hack Line.

At the time we mentioned that a two-horse Hack had been placed upon the road from Fayetteville to Branchville, for the accommodation of the travelling community, we entertained fears that it would not be sustained. We are now, however, pleased to state that the enterprise bids fair to succeed; and we are of the opinion that so soon as it is generally known, all the travel from this section will pass by this conveyance. We are in hopes this may be the case. We should be happy to know that Mr. Mathews, the proprietor, had been amply compensated for the liberal enterprising spirit he is manifesting in this matter, and we would urge upon those intending a trip to give him a chance, by taking a ride in his commodious vehicle, and a taste of the unequalled luxuries with which his pleasant lady keeps his table bountifully supplied. We have heard of these, if we have not tried them. Report says that they are equal to those of Mrs. Cowan, of Salem, of which all have heard, and many have partaken.

Potatoes.

In copying our notice of the unequalled potatoes sent us by our friend Henry Snyder, the Franklin Review, lets off after this style. Owing to its delicate condition at this time, (the election having just passed,) we will have to let Cameron indulge the delusive idea that the girls of Williamsonson are some "pumpkins," but we earnestly invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another part of our paper—Christian Chronicle.

We have not a word to say, brother Berry, in regard to the "democrats" you can, and you do produce more of that same, we believe, than any country in Tennessee; but when you talk about "pretty girls and big potatoes," why there we put in our disclaimer. Old Williamson can't beat in either of these particulars, no way it can be fixed. Why man, the pretty girls—and handsome widows—of old Williamson have become proverbial and they are sought after from far and near. Brother Berry, suppose you come over here, and take a look at "our girls," just to take the conceit out of you in regard to old Lincoln. Your potatoes are "small," decidedly, and but few in a hill. When you come up with our eight and a half pounder, we will talk further with you.

In the matter of pretty girls and big potatoes, old Williamson yields no portion of earth—especially the women.

Dr. Duval.

From the slight acquaintance formed, we are disposed to underwrite Dr. Duval as a perfect gentleman, and from the testimonials, a skillful and polished surgeon dentist. His selection of Fayetteville as a permanent location, will, we trust, prove profitable to him and gratifying to the citizens of both town and county.

A New Move.

By reference to a suggestion of "A Voter," published under the head of "Military Election," in our advertising columns, it would seem a spirit of insubordination to that portion of our militia laws requiring us to muster, has taken hold of some of the boys, which is proposed to be consummated after the plan of "A Voter." What respect or heed should be shown this new move we leave for others determine.

To Printers.

One-half of the Pulaski Gazette Printing Office is offered to a good printer, on good terms, by its present proprietor, friend Moore.

Large Vegetables.

Old Lincoln being so far ahead of all other counties in all that constitutes true greatness, we will not taunt them with giving the dimensions of a large BEER, sent us from the garden of Andrew Buchanan, Esq. TURNIP, from the garden of Mrs. Ivy Morgan, and RADISH, from Hugh Thompson's. The bare mention of the size of these luscious garden "yearbs" would make our friend Canner blush for old "Williamstown," notwithstanding he has the impudence to claim all the beauty for the "gabs and widders" in his diggings. "Oh no, we will never mention them," for his sake.

Thanksgiving Day.

Gov. Campbell, of Tennessee, has, in his proclamation, recommended Thursday, the 25th inst., as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

A few days since a "rooster," belonging to a chicken dealer in St. Louis, Mo., not fancying the idea of being fried, embraced an opportunity to escape. This act on his part was observed by those who claimed him as their property, and immediately he was pursued. Chantecler ran for protection in the drug store of Mr. D. Onech, and flew against a bottle filled with eight ounces of the altar of roses, which was upset, the bottle broken, and the previous contents spilled upon the floor. Mr. D'Onech has commenced a suit for the recovery of $65, the value of the property destroyed.

NEW YORK.—The Democrats of this State have elected their entire ticket. Mr. Brooks is defeated for Congress. Mike Walsh, F. B. Cutting, Hinman Walbridge, and Walker, all democrats, are elected to Congress from the city.

ONE CAMERON. An old and valuable subscriber, has sent us a certificate from one of his Parishes, which he wishes published for the benefit of his neighbors, and the community at large. It states on authority that needs no confirmation, the particulars of a remarkable cure from Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, an article we have already taken occasion to notice, and which we have reason to believe is worth notice. This sufferer had been reduced very low from the effects of a Cold and Cough, caused by over exertion at a fire, nearly three years since, and, from which it was evident to his friends that he was fast hastening to a premature grave. Many of the remedies of the day and the advice of eminent Physicians had all failed to afford him relief, when he was induced to try the Cherry Pectoral, which soon cured him. The crowded state of our columns will not admit the full particulars, but we earnestly invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another part of our paper—Christian Chronicle.
